

Are you interested in an exciting career in cannabis retail? Because as you've probably seen, dispensaries are popping up everywhere creating a huge demand for well-trained people who understand cannabis retail operations, service, and compliance. That's why we're happy to introduce you to the Advanced Dispensary Associate Certificate Program - an 8-week, 100% online training and credential program designed to empower you with the knowledge, skills, and credibility needed to succeed in the cannabis retail sector today.

This 100% online program prepares you for multiple roles working at a cannabis dispensary and is completely self-paced, which means you can complete the lessons at your own pace and on your own time. Taught exclusively by leading industry experts and operators on the front lines of cannabis today, this impactful training has three units of study.

In the first unit you begin with cannabis compliance training. This is important as the industry is heavily regulated and understanding the importance of maintaining compliance is crucial. In the second unit you will dive into skills-based training specifically for cannabis retail covering important topics, such as: the various delivery methods and products used in today's cannabis marketplace, providing safe and helpful service to consumers, the science of cannabis - including cannabinoids, terpenes, and endocannabinoid system, proper history, terminology, and botany of the cannabis plant, and much more. In your third and final unit we focus on health and safety training, which is essential if you want to work in cannabis. You'll learn: personal responsibility for cannabis workers, safely and compliantly receiving and transporting cannabis products, maintaining product safety, the need for diversity equity and inclusion in cannabis, and much more. Once you complete this comprehensive online program and pass the exam, you will showcase your knowledge and credibility to others with your official Advanced Dispensary Associate Certificate backed by the GF Institute, the industry standard in cannabis credentials built and supported by the largest brands and employers in cannabis today.

In addition, you will be granted access to the GF Institute Employer Network, which is made up of growing cannabis companies throughout the country who are eager to hire people with this type of education and qualification.

So, whether you're brand new to cannabis or you want to level up your skills and knowledge around dispensary operations, product knowledge, and cannabis service - this industry adopted credential program will help you advance your career in the ever-expanding legal cannabis industry today. Once you register for the program, you'll immediately gain access to the first lesson so that you can start your educational journey right away. The future of the cannabis industry is very bright. Don't miss your chance to participate in it today.
